

ANTIGRAVITY BATTERIES®

Sponsorships

Antigravity Batteries is looking for a small group of dedicated car enthusiasts and drivers to promote our brand as well as help us test and improve our products. Sponsor participants may be eligible for significant discounts and in some cases, free products. Individuals who are successful contributors to our mission will be considered for higher levels of sponsorship. Additionally if you enter our Affiliate program, you can make money by offering discount codes to your followers, friends or whomever and easily make money off our products.

Antigravity Batteries is always looking for new, fun and exciting projects. Have one that you think we will LOVE? Great at social media? Apply for a sponsorship today! Our sponsorships will give you access to our brand at reduced costs, or BETTER! Giving you an opportunity to bring your dream build to life. Please fill out this short form to see if you qualify! Send to accounts@antigravitybatteries.com. We typically review and respond via email within 24-48 hours of application. We look forward to your response!
